

CLUB LIST

Game Club - Chad Loosemore - For those students who enjoy strategy board games. We meet after school.

Pep Club - Kari Lane - Pep Club is responsible for providing a fun and engaging atmosphere at St. Joseph Catholic High School. We have a variety of committees designed to incorporate a complete experience for the students at our school. Pep Club is a great opportunity for you to get involved, have fun, and make great friends. Go Jayhawks!

Green Club - Shane Reinhard, - Reduce, Reuse, Recycle. Our club is in charge of all recycling efforts on campus.

Mountain Biking - Pete Buttschardt - Mountain Biking is currently an unsanctioned sport, so at our school it's a club sport. Our team races in three tournaments during the race season.

National Honor Society - Sue Gough - The National Honor Society (NHS) elevates a school's commitment to the values of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. These four pillars have been associated with membership in the organization since its inception in 1921. The goal of the Saint Joseph Catholic School NHS is to excel in academics and community service.

Nuevos Horizontes (New Horizons) - Alicia Behnken - New Horizons is a spanish club that's purpose is to expand community outreach to our Hispanic community here in Ogden. We also facilitate yearly immersion/mission trips outside of the U.S. Our group is very involved in service and will be working with Operation Christmas Child, Youth Impact, Catholic Community Services, as well as hosting cultural events in hopes of raising awareness to the needs of other cultures and customs.

HOPE SQUAD - Jennifer Hughes, Rose Ybaben - HOPE Squad is a school based "peer to peer" program that partners with local mental health and community agencies. HOPE Squad students are trained to be active listeners so they may help and respond to peers who are struggling with emotional issues such as depression and suicide.

International Club - Alexis Salvo - American and International students are welcome to be members of the club. Meetings take place every other week, field trips occuring twice a year. The mission of the International Club here at the Saint Joseph Catholic is to:

- Make the transition of life here at the school easier for international and exchange students.
- Provide opportunities for students to share their culture and traditions with the high school community.
- Promote cross-cultural interaction between international and American students through numerous activities throughout the year.

Campus Ministry - Cindy Lowder, Annie Yates- Campus Ministry is a group that works to ensure that the entire Saint Joseph High School community has access to the sacraments, especially the Mass and Reconciliation, and retreats that are student-led and student-inspired. While Campus Ministry is a course in which students can help for several hours each week, all students are welcome to be in touch with Mrs. Lowder & Mrs. Yates to shape campus ministry.

Math Club - Kevin Fendrick - Deepen your mathematical knowledge by solving non-typical math problems, and later entering math competitions.

Student Council - Cindy White - Student government is available beginning your Freshman year. All students are encouraged to run for office and get involved with every aspect of student life. Each class has an elected set of officers.

Rock Band - Alfonso Tenreiro - This Band class is for students who already play an instrument. Whether you play a brass instrument, woodwind, violin, cello, guitar, drums, piano, or bass come join us! You don't need to be proficient in reading music. The styles performed will vary from Jazz to Blues, Rock, Classic Rock, Pop or Reggae depending on instrumentalists available. Among other things you will be taught; to improvise using several scales, emphasizing the Blues and pentatonic scales.

Choir - Alfonso Tenreiro - The choir performs their own songs and also performs with the band during joint performances. The students learn to sing in varied styles such as Pop, Rock, Jazz, Broadway and Classical among others. There is always the opportunity to sing solos at the concerts. All members are encouraged to try.

Student Ambassadors - Cindy White, Cindy Lowder - The Ambassadors are the diplomatic corps of our school, who function as ministers of hospitality and representatives of Saint Joseph Catholic High School at diocesan, civic, and community events. They are role models for their peers and are expected to maintain the highest values of our school. Ambassadors are required to have excellent communication skills, as they conduct tours, greet and host visitors, and speak to a variety of people, both here at Saint Joseph and in the larger community. They are poised, professional, and enthusiastic to serve.

Theatre - Jennifer Hughes - Student directed plays, design opportunities, costuming, sound, lighting, etc. This club is highly regarded on campus and performs in the following:

Shakespeare Competition, October

Winter Play

Spring Play

UHSAA Region and State Drama Competition, April

Utah High School Musical Theatre Awards, May

Diplomacy The Game - Jay Hart - Long a tradition in the Saint Joseph senior Government classes, Diplomacy is a game of strategy set in early 20th Century Europe. Seven players compete to control supply centers and fend off the attempts of the other players to do the same. Diplomacy was a game played by the Kennedy Administration during the early 1960s and has evolved into a number of new forms now in the 21st.
